She Broke Down Entirely.

Lantz, W., Va.—Mrs. Tebe Talbott, of this place, says: "I had been troubled with womanly ailments for some time, and at last I broke down entirely. I got so weak I could scarcely walk across the room. Thanks to Cardui, I improved right off. Now I do my housework, and am feeling well." During the past 50 years, more than a million women have been benefited by taking Cardui. You must believe that Cardui will help you, too, since it helped all these others. Modern Education.

A prominent school principal lately told us some of the answers found in pupils' examination papers. Here are two of them: "What is a volcano?" "A volcano is a mountain that sometimes blows the equator off." "What is the difference between a mountain and a hill?" "A hill is like a mountain, only a mountain is a little more hillier."

A TEXAS WONDER.

The Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, dissolves gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame backs, rheumatism, and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. Regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is two months' treatment, and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Send for testimonials from this and other states: Dr. E. W. Hall, 2926 Olive Street, St. Louis, Mo. Send by druggists.

HAD ODD IDEA OF JUSTICE

Chances Are, However, That "Kun'l Bone" Somewhat Primitive Methods Achieved Results.

When "Kun'l Jedge" Bone was an undisputed czar in his county in western Kentucky, says a contributor to Lippincott's Magazine, he disposed of cases that came up before him with severity or clemency, according to their merits in his eyes, and without regard to law or precedent.

In one instance two old negroes went to law about a certain mule, which each accused the other of having stolen. Inasmuch as the case presented many amusing features, the "Kun'l Jedge" enjoyed it the first day as a sort of special performance for his entertainment; but the second day he summarily dismissed court, in order to go with a hunting party.

"Now, see heah; I'm tired of listenin' to all that nonsense. One or the othah of you stole that mule, and it's mighty plain to my mind that evah last one of you have been up heah swearin' to a pack of lies. Unc' Mose, you can keep that mule—you was the last one to git him. Unc' Joe, you go 'long up to the big house and tell Son Tob I said to give you that ol' block mule outah the pasture. Now evah las' one of you cleah out, and if evah I find out who stole that mule I'll punish him yet. Co't's dismissed till day aftah tomorrow—so, better make it nex' Monday. We'll be down in the bottom three or fo' days, won't we, Zack?"

HIS CONTRIBUTION

Claude—Old Closefist is the meanest man in the state. I asked him to contribute something to an Arctic expedition.

Clara—And what did he contribute?

Claude—A grass-cutter.

THE COUNTRY IN THE CITY.

A few years ago there was much talk and writing about the possibility of "bringing the country into the city" by means of tree planting, little backyard gardens, flower boxes in windows, and so on. In Great Britain, if memory serves, a national conference was held to promote these laudable local enterprises and stimulate rivalry and emulation.

Mr. Prost, Chicago's city forester, applies the term "suburbanization" to this movement. Evidently in the last few years the distance between the city and the country, "the real country," as commuters say with wistful accent, has grown wider. The intervening spaces are suburban, and if we can suburbanize our business and crowded residential quarters we shall do well. But, call the process what one will, trees, shade, flowers, grass, little gardens are lovely and attractive under any description.—Chicago Herald.

DECEPTIVE APPEARANCE.

"You do not speak to him?"
"No," replied the scholarly girl.
"When I passed him I gave him the geological survey."

"The geological survey?"
"Yes. What is commonly known as the stony stare."

OFF HIS FEET.

Doctor—You are suffering from a complication of diseases—at least six.

Patient—I suppose you'll allow me a discount on half a dozen, doctor.

DEVOUT?

Sonny—It takes papa a long time to say his prayers this morning.

Mother—He isn't saying his prayers. He's shaving with his new safety.

Sonny—Well, he's talking mighty loud to God, anyhow.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

The most economical, cleansing and germicidal of all antiseptics is

Paxtine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ills it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. Women who have been cured say it is "worth its weight in gold."
